The Mission

Of those corpuscles in your blood that have been called "Little Soldiers," is to fight for you against the disease germs that constantly endanger your health. These corpuscles are made healthy and strong by the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla.

This medicine is a combination of more than 20 different remedial agents in proportions and by a process known only to ourselves and it has for thirty years been constantly proving its worth. No substitute, none "just-as-good."

The Connecticut company has completed the work of changing the terminal of their Moosup-Central Village line in the latter village. While the track has been extended so that the present terminal point is near that of the Norwich and Danielson lines, the new spur has not yet been placed in use. Poles of the telephone company that are so close to the new extension as to make accidents to alighting passengers liable, and these poles are to be removed before the cars run around there regularly. The spur is being utilized, however, at night for keeping the car used on the Moosup line off the street.

Peter Lambert, 22, who has been ill for several years, died at his home on the West Side late Monday night. Most of the young man's life has been spent in Danielson, where he is very well known and has a large number of friends. He leaves his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Lambert, and one brother, Henry Lambert, all of the West Side.

Audience Liked the Harddigs.

A new feature was added to the regular entertainment at the Town hall on Tuesday evening, when the three Harddigs, famous circus clowns, gave an exhibition of comedy acrobatics that was very pleasing to the large audience that came out to see the specially advertised act. The Harddigs went from Danielson to enter the Keith circuit and will fill an engagement of several weeks. The exhibition of Tuesday evening was their initial public appearance for the season, and was the nature of a tryout for their new act.

Possibility of Basketball.

Danielson may get some basketball games after all this winter. The promoters of the game have found a party that is willing to go on the bond of $5,000 required by the state guarantee against any possible damage that may be done to the armory building, where it is proposed to hold the games. The armory is the most desirable hall for basketball that can be obtained in Danielson and is now being repaired. Now that the handicap against getting it has been removed the followers of the game are looking up again.

CHICKEN THIEVES

Carry Off Seventeen Fowls from Griffiths' Home at South Killingly.

Bold chicken thieves are doing business around Danielson. Silas Griffiths, who lives on the Vaughn place, at South Killingly, reported to Chief Pilling Tuesday morning that his coops had been visited on Monday night and about seventeen fowls stolen. The incident occurred about 6 o'clock and was attended by somewhat spectacular circumstances. The fact that the coops were being touched before the bright moon got above the horizon was reported to Mr. Griffiths by a small boy who had happened to discover the theft. Griffiths at once reached for his gun, but he had to stop to load it. When this had been attended to, Mr. Griffiths went out and took a shot. Meanwhile Mr. Griffiths' informant had been away, but he returned later and reported that he had seen the men in a team and that they were going in the direction of Danielson. The fact was reported to the police and an investigation of the matter was being made Tuesday.

Sterling Wants New R. F. D. Route.

A petition is being circulated for the purpose of securing a sufficient number of signatures to induce the government to establish a new rural free delivery route from Sterling. The proposed route is to begin at the postoffice in the Danielson postoffice and to run to the Rhode Island line, back by the South Killingly postoffice and to Sterling. The route crosses the rural route from the Danielson postoffice at two different places, but does not conflict with the local rural route. The Danielson route and the proposed route cover, in part, the same territory, but are mapped over different roads. If the new route is authorized the South Killingly postoffice will probably be discontinued.

All of the patients are recovering and the cultures sent out for examination are being returned as discharged. While some of the patients have been ill, no deaths have occurred. Anti-toxin has been used freely, with excellent results. As many as 13,000 units was used in one case.

Sparks in Chimney Caused Damage to Building of H. S. Morse on North School Street.

A fire caused probably by a defective chimney damaged the frame building occupied by H. S. Morse as a market on North School street and its contents to the extent of about $2,500 on Tuesday evening. The alarm came in from box 24 just before 8 o'clock. The firemen were handicapped at the start because of the lack of water pressure at the high elevation where the fire occurred, but a telephone message to the pumping station brought relief in a short time. The building was badly gutted and new buildings, including an icehouse, workshop and wagon shed, recently erected, were threatened. The house and barn were injured. There had been a fire under the set kettle in the meat market Tuesday while butchering was being done and it is believed that sparks found a lodging place in the chimney and caused the fire. The loss is not covered by insurance.
